Ali Ewoldt, a multi-talented performer in theater arts, was the Philippine nominee for 2019.

Ewoldt just completed over two-and-a-half years as Christine in Broadway's longest-running musical "The Phantom of the Opera."

She is the first Asian-American and woman of color to play the role in its 30 years.

Ewoldt has been an advocate for diversity and inclusion in the performing arts and a spokesperson for the Theater Development Fund's Autism Theater Initiative and Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS.

She made her Broadway debut as Cosette in "Les Misérables," appeared in Lincoln Center's recent Tony Award winning revival of "The King and I," and has played Maria in numerous productions of "West Side Story" across the nation and the world.
