M Lounge boasts a rustic menu of international cuisine (primarily Italian, Spanish and Asian) in an elegant but casual setting for family and friends looking for some bonding or relaxation.

“I have personally hand-picked the food in our menu that you just can’t find in places for casual dining,” notes M Lounge owner and executive chef Lourdes (Chef Malou) Lozada, a San Pablo, Laguna native who has acquired an extensive kitchen experience after completing her nearly three-year culinary arts course at the Art Institute of New York City.

“One of the secrets is that we use the best and expensive ingredients,” she confides.

“The cheese we use, for example, are not your regular cheese.”
