 Finally, Jason Day, the 27-year-old Filipino-Australian PGA Tour professional player, quest for his first major title is finally over. In the last two major, he had held at least a share of the lead going into the final round but failed to win. In the recently concluded 97th PGA Championship held at Whistling Straits, Kohler, Wisconsin on Aug. 13-16, it was a different story. After making a 314 yard drive at the Par 5 16th hole and scoring a birdie to get to 20 under par, he had a lead of 3 strokes over Jordan Spieth and that is where

Bongbong preparing for 'biggest decision'

By PERMUS ECHIMINADA
 MANILA — Sen. Ferdinand "Bongbong" Marcos Jr. (pictured at right) on Sunday said he is preparing for the "biggest decision" of his life in connection with the 2016 elections.

In an interview over radio station dzBB, Marcos said he is making his own political decision, although it is usually the political party that decides whether a candidate would run for president or vice president. The senator said, however, he will wait for the final say of the Nacionalista Party before
