Golden weekend at Asia Society

By MARYLYN ABALOS

Special to the Filipino Reporter

It was a golden weekend at Asia Society where golden memories (gintuang) were cherished, the golden (bughaw) and gold plated sarnes came out, and the treasures (ginto) of our art and culture were displayed. It was a winning trifecta plus one this weekend from the Philippine Gold Opening Gala on Sept. 10 to the Dinner Gala on Sept. 11 to the Fil Am Community Celebration on Sept. 12 plus the Rondalla Concert on Sept. 13. The Philippine Gold Exhibition is on loan from the Ayala Museum to Asia Society in New York from Sept. 11 to Jan. 3, 2016.

The Opening Gala last Thursday glittered with over 200 guests in attendance. Sixteen members of the Zobel de Ayala Tam to page 13

MANILA — Before thousands of supporters, including politicians of all shades, as well as showbiz personalities, Sen. Grace Poe formally declared Wednesday night her bid for the presidency, saying nobody has a monopoly of pursuing the righteous path in government.

Clad in white shirt and jeans, Poe reiterated she is Filipino amid questions raised on her citizenship.
