MANILA — The Court of Appeals (CA) affirms the arrest of TV host Willie Revillame in connection to the case filed against him in 2011.

A child abuse complaint was filed against Revillame by the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) in the Quezon City Regional Trial Court (RTC). This is in relation to the March 12, 2011 episode of the defunct TV5 show "Willing Willie," where he persuaded a child to do "macho-dancer" like

Chinese deputy consul, finance officer shot dead in Cebu City

By ROWENA CAPISTRANO

CEBU CITY — Two Chinese diplomats were killed, while the Chinese consul general in Cebu City was wounded when a Chinese woman went on a shooting rampage in a restaurant in Cebu City Wednesday afternoon.

Killed were Deputy Consul General Sun Shan and finance officer Hai Li. They died from gunshot wounds while being treated in hospital.

Wounded Consul General Song Rong Hua was also taken to a hospital in Cebu City for treatment.

Song has been in his post for only a few weeks, it was learned from one of the Chinese diplomats.

Confessions of a 'proxy voter' at a PIDCI election

By CRISTINA DC PASTOR

Reprinted from The Filian

How I ended up casting a ballot at the Oct. 3, 2015 Philippine

Independence Day Council, Inc. (PIDCI) election is a story with all the charm of a bad reality TV show.

Coming from MAKILALA taping in East Harlem, I, together with Victor Palmos and Laura Garcia, arrived at the Philippine Center close to the end of voting. I ran into Proo Lim, gave him a hug, and congratulated him for being the new president.

"Hindi pa tapos ang bahayan," he chuckled.

The "bahayan" was just a for-
