WASHINGTON — The Heads of Philippine Foreign Service Posts in the U.S. and the DFA-Office of American Affairs convened the 2018 Planning Conference of Team Philippines-USA at the Philippine Embassy in Washington on Feb. 8-9, 2018.

Philippine ambassador to the United States Jose Manuel G. Romualdez chaired the Conference, which was participated in by the heads and representatives of the Philippine Consulates General in Agana (Guam), Chicago, Honolulu, Los Angeles, New York and San Francisco.

The Philippine Consulate General in Houston, Texas that is slated to open later this year, was also represented.

In his opening remarks, Romualdez exhorted the Consulates General to continue delivering effective public service and do right by the country and the Filipino people.
